

CONTENTS

|   | PAGE |
|---|------|
| Regional Furniture Studies in the late 18th and 19th-century Traditions:An Introduction to Research Methods |      |
| BERNARD D. COTTON .. .. .   | I    |
| Oak Furniture and the Towneley Family of Lancashire   |      |
| SUSAN BOURNE .. .. .  | 19   |
| A Painted Bed dated 1724  |      |
| ANTHONY WELLS-COLE .. .. .  | 27   |
| The Chairs of Sutherland and Caithness:A Northern Tradition in Highland Chair-making?                       |      |
| R. ROSS NOBLE .. .. .   | 33   |
| Furniture in Steyning, a Sussex Parish, 1587–1707:A Study of Documentary Sources                            |      |
| JANET PENNINGTON and JOYCE SLEIGHT .. .. .  | 41   |
| ‘To a Mahogany Case — the Best Sort’:Influences on the design of 18th-century North Lancashire Clock Cases  |      |
| SUSAN E. STUART .. .. .   | 50   |
| Workhouse Furniture   |      |
| CHRISTOPHER GILBERT .. .. .   | 61   |
| A Chester Cabinet Maker’s Specification Book  |      |
| NICHOLAS MOORE .. .. .  | 71   |
| Connecticut Plain High-Style Seating of the 18th century  |      |
| ROBERT F. TRENT .. .. .   | 79   |
| Shorter Notice .. .. .  | 86   |