

A WELSH GLASTONBURY CHAIR: SACRED OR PROFANE?

It seems that at least one 'Glastonbury'-style chair was made for secular use. Steven Hill, a valuer from South Wales, recently sent me a photograph of such a chair but with a Windsor chair crest rail supported on spindles above the back. The story which the owners give is that it was made for a Carmarthen farmer circa 1830.

Dr. B. D. Cotton

Figs. 5 and 6