

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

The Art of Decoration in Elizabethan and Jacobean England. The Influence of Continental Prints 1558-1625 by Anthony Wells-Cole.

A richly illustrated study examining the influence of prints imported predominantly from the Netherlands but also from Italy, Germany and France on architectural features, interior decoration and furnishings in Elizabethan England.

Published by London and New Haven: 1997. 336pp with 125 colour plates and 375 monochrome illustrations. June 1997. Cloth 28.5x24.5cms ISBN 59133 Price £50.