

Drawing of a London Stubbs chair, dated 1829

We have recently acquired a drawing by John Cullum of a woman seated on a ladderback chair, plucking a goose. The chair has been identified by Simon Feingold and

John Cullum, Drawing showing a ladderback chair by Stubbs's Manufactory, London. Pencil and wash on paper, signed with monogram and dated 1829

John Boram as a London Stubbs chair, similar to several illustrated in John Boram's Regional Furniture article, vol. 24, (2010), pp. 49–82, 'Makers of Dy'd, Fancy and Japan'd Chairs', figs 10–16. Stubbs's Manufactory was based in City Road and Brick Lane, Old Street, London.

John and Rosy Gall